DETROIT, Mich. - Host Detroit used a solid bench effort and a pair of double-double performances to run past Niagara, 96-77 in the final game of the Legends Classic tournament held at Calihan Hall Sunday. Nick Minnerath and Eli Holman were each named to the five-man All-Tournament Team with Holman grabbing Most Valuable Player accolades.

Detroit will host a pair of games this week, welcoming Akron Wednesday before opening conference play Saturday with a match-up against Wright State.

Notes: Holman was also the MVP of the Coaches vs. Cancer tournament held in Albany, N.Y. last season ... UDM was the host for the three-day, four-team event that also featured Albany and Bowling Green State ... Detroit defeated Albany 84-82 in double overtime Friday and bested BGSU 71-62 Saturday.
